Vienna, August 16, N. S.

THE Grand Duke of Tuscany has been obliged, for the Recovery of his Health, to drink the Waters, and to enter into a Course of Bathing every fifth Day; and it being reckoned that by that Time he has gone through this Course, his Consort will be brought to Bed, his Return to the Army will probably be thereby delayed, unless a very pressing Necessity should require his Presence there. A great Conference was held last Night before the Emperor, on the Situation of Affairs in Hungary. We have confirmed Advice from Carlostadt in Croatia by Letters of the 5th Instant, that General Count Esterhasi, Ban of Croatia, having Intelligence that a Body of 5000 Turks had entred that Province and invested the Castle of Srinin, in order to lay Siege to it, drew together the Country Militia and went and incamped near Sisnyar, from whence he detached some Parties to watch the Enemy's Motions. On the 30th past being informed that the Artillery designed to be employed by the Turks in that Siege was not well guarded, he resolved to attempt to seize it: For which purpose he detach'd from his Camp Major Petroviczki with 500 Foot and 50 Horse, and at the same Time dispatched an Officer to Castenitza, with Order to the Governour there, to detach 1000 Men to a certain Place appointed; and in the Evening Count Esterhasi himself marched with his Troops, in order to assist those Detachments when they should come to Action. It happened that some Soldiers of those Detachments fired their Pieces as they were on the March, which being heard by the Enemy, they suspected a Design was laid to surprize them, the more because some Hussars appeared on the Hills near their Camp: Hereupon the Turks were struck with such a Fright, that they retired from their Camp with Precipitation and in great Disorder, abandoning several Cannon, and their Ammunition of all Sorts. Several Parties were sent out in pursuit of them, but they could not be overtaken, having made their Escape into Bosnia.
